

LAB 4.3 Google Maps

Write programming code to present Google Maps on the screen.

Input data could be:

- the full address
- a pair (longitude, latitude)

You can integrate this feature to your existing website, when your users may want to find the store close to their location.